Official Opening of École Alexandre-Taché!

St-Albert, February, 23rd, 2017 — Conseil scolaire Centre-Nord (CSCN)'s School Trustees are pleased to announce the official opening of École Alexandre-Taché in St-Albert. A formal ceremony will be held with many guests of honour on Thursday, February 23rd, 2017 at 7:00 PM.

“Greater St-Albert area families have waited a long time for a high school which offers high quality programs in a suitable environment for their teenagers” stated Nathalie Lachance, the Chairperson for CSCN. “Our students from École Alexandre-Taché now have access to facilities that compete with English – language schools. This would not have been possible without the hard work of parents who have been actively involved in turning this dream into reality,” added Ms. Lachance.

Several distinguished guests are expected to attend this event such as the Minister of Education, the Honourable David Eggen, MLA for St-Albert, Marie Renaud, and the Mayor of St-Albert Municipality, Nolan Crouse. The new school opened its doors in November 2016 in the aftermath of an announcement made in 2013 by the Government of Alberta.
